DEPARTMENT OF STATE

2947

4. The Secretariat - National Intelligence Authority represents the personnel which the Department contributes to the National Intelligence Authority and the Central Intelligence Group, established pursuant to Presidential directive dated January 22, 1946. That directive provides that the Secretaries of State, War, and Navy, and a personal representative of the President shall constitute the National Intelligence Authority, and that personnel shall be assigned from the three Departments to a Central Intelligence Group which, under the National Intelligence Authority, shall have the following functions:

- a. Accomplish the correlation and evaluation of intelligence relating to the national security, and the appropriate dissemination within the Government of the resulting strategic and national policy intelligence. In so doing, full use shall be made of the staff and facilities of the intelligence agencies of your Departments.
- b. Plan for the coordination of such of the activities of the intelligence agencies of your Departments as relate to the national security and recommend to the National Intelligence Authority the establishment of such over-all policies and objectives as will assure the most effective accomplishment of the national intelligence mission.
- c. Perform, for the benefit of said intelligence agencies, such services of common concern as the National Intelligence Authority determines can be more efficiently accomplished centrally.
- d. Perform such other functions and duties related to intelligence affecting the national security as the President and the National Intelligence Authority may from time to time direct.
